Federal Energy Management Program
Office of Conservation and Solar Applications
Department of Energy
Washington, D. C. 20545

Gentlemen:

Submitted herewith is this Agency's Annual Report on Energy Management as required by Executive Order 12003.

While our primary energy needs are in the area of facilities operations and maintenance, which are managed and controlled by the General Services Administration, we are firmly committed to the Federal program. We will continue to monitor our energy management efforts and search out new ways to promote our national energy conservation objectives.

This report was prepared by [redacted] If we can be of further assistance, please contact him, telephone [redacted]
